

Unlocking Employment

A FREE
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
OPPORTUNITY

How to Partner with Job Seekers Impacted by the Legal System

OVERVIEW

Unlocking Employment: How to Partner with Job Seekers Impacted by the Legal System is a free 90-minute online course for New York City workforce development providers, criminal justice students, and anyone interested in enhancing their skills and building capacity for working with job seekers who have legal-system involvement.

This free professional development opportunity emphasizes a strengths-based approach, and is filled with key insights on legal protections for those with criminal convictions, ways to reduce stigma, and proven strategies to support the job search.

90-MINUTE ONLINE COURSE WITH INTERACTIVE EXERCISES & CASE STUDIES

Designed in partnership with job seekers and workforce practitioners, the course includes four (4) self-paced modules, featuring interactive exercises and case studies, as well as a curated resource library that learners may refer to at any time during or after the course.

FOR INFORMATION & REGISTRATION

bit.ly/unlocking-employment

COVERS FOUR TOPICS

- 1 Exploring the Impact of the Legal System on Job Seekers
- 2 Legal Protections from Discrimination Against Job Seekers
- 3 Getting to Know Your Job Seeker
- 4 Supporting the Job Search

GAIN ONGOING ACCESS TO COMPREHENSIVE RESOURCE LIBRARY

- » Includes dozens of articles, tools, and resources
- » Updated quarterly
- » Includes information on the Clean Slate Act and other related New York legislation